PAUSE FOR THOUGHT.....

All things are possible with God.

For we have a God who is continually at work in our lives, picking up the broken pieces, making something new out of them. When the dreams of our life are shattered, there is always one thing we can count on: God will work all things together for good for those who love the Lord. Even now, at this very moment, if we are very still, we can feel God's hand working in our lives. We can sense God's Spirit witnessing to our spirit that Jesus Christ is alive--living and breathing among and within us...this very moment. And, if we look very intently with spiritual eyes--we will see Jesus --comforting us, holding us, sympathizing with us. How assuring it is to know that Jesus understands how we feel. He understands because he's been down the road himself. So, hoping against hope, let us fix our eyes on Jesus. We live because he lives. And because he lives, we have hope. So let us hope against hope, if necessary: A glorious future awaits us all! For we have a God who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us. To him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

Our deepest sympathy to the family of Paddy Joe Farrelly, Clara whose funeral took place in Kildallan on Wednesday. May he rest in peace.

5th World Meeting of Families Collection will take place next weekend. Once again we are being asked to contribute. This extract from a letter from the organisers explains the reason for another collection. The overall cost to the Church in Ireland for hosting WMOF comes to €19.4m. To date €15.4m has been raised by way of local church collections and by other donations. This leaves us with a deficit of €4m. In order to help defray this debt I am asking you, once again, for your support in promoting our fifth national collection which will take place in churches, North and South, over the weekend of 10 and 11 November

November Altar Lists of the Dead are available at the back of each church. Please put your list in the envelope provided in your box of envelopes and return as soon as possible.
