Red Wednesday November 28th. Parishes are invited to turn churches red to highlight the persecution of Christians throughout the world. It is estimated that 1million Christians have been murdered for their faith throughout the world since 2000. Up to 200 million Christians live in conditions which are hostile to our faith. Christians are the most persecuted religious group in the world. Our media fail to report this. So on Wednesday week many major landmarks throughout the world will be lit up red to underline the plight of persecuted Christians. Knock Basilica will join cathedrals and parish churches across Ireland in the initiative and parishioners are being urged to pray the Angelus and wear an item of red clothing to unite in solidarity with persecuted Christians worldwide and raise awareness of their plight.

Pastoral Council Meeting will take place on Monday November 26th at 8:30pm in the Parochial house in Bawnboy. All members are asked to attend.
