Red Wednesday November 28th. Parishes are invited to turn churches red to highlight the persecution of Christians throughout the world. It is estimated that 1million Christians have been murdered for their faith throughout the world since 2000. Up to 200 million Christians live in conditions which are hostile to our faith. Christians are the most persecuted religious group in the world. Our media fail to report this. So on Wednesday week many major landmarks throughout the world will be lit up red to underline the plight of persecuted Christians. Knock Basilica will join cathedrals and parish churches across Ireland in the initiative and parishioners are being urged to pray the Angelus and wear an item of red clothing to unite in solidarity with persecuted Christians worldwide and raise awareness of their plight.

Dear Parishioner The regulation of termination of pregnancy bill is currently making it's way through the Oireachtas. Reasonable amendments are not being supported by the majority of TD's. These amendments include; Exemption from participation in abortion for conscientious objectors. Pain relief for preborn babies before abortion, Lifesaving intervention in the event of a baby surviving an attempted abortion, Refusal of an abortion on disability, race or gender grounds, Dignified treatment of human remains. Please, regardless of how you voted in the Referendum, have compassion - show your support for these humane amendments by signing the petition (at the back of the church). Thank you.

An evening of prayer in honour of Our Lady of Fatima will take place in the Kilmore Diocesan Pastoral Centre, Cullies, Cavan on Friday November 30th. Celebrant Fr Des Farren, MSC, WAF.
