

PAUSE FOR THOUGHT.....

I hope that in this year to come, you make mistakes. Because if you are making mistakes, then you are making new things, trying new things, learning, living, pushing yourself, changing yourself, changing your world. You're doing things you've never done before, and more importantly, you're Doing Something. Don't freeze, don't stop, don't worry that it isn't good enough, or it isn't perfect, whatever it is: art, or love, or work or family or life. Make your mistakes, next year and forever.

May Light always surround you;
 Hope kindle and rebound you.
 May your Hurts turn to Healing;
 Your Heart embrace Feeling.
 May Wounds become Wisdom;
 Every Kindness a Prism.
 May Laughter infect you;
 Your Passion resurrect you.
 May Goodness inspire
 your Deepest Desires.
 Through all that you Reach For,
 May your arms Never Tire.

The new year stands before us, like a chapter in a book, waiting to be written. We can help write that story by setting goals.

Change in Mass Times: From January 1st to June 30th the Friday Mass will be celebrated at 8pm in Corlough.

2019 Envelopes. The boxes of envelopes for 2019 have now been distributed. I thank you most sincerely for your generosity to me and the parish in 2018. We will be sending out receipts in the New Year to all who used their envelopes. Obviously we cannot acknowledge the contributions of those of you who contribute without using an envelope but thank you. Since the reduction in Masses more people are now attending Mass outside of the parish with the result that the offertory collection has declined. This can be largely offset if people use their envelopes when they worship in another parish because the envelopes will be returned to their own parish. We encourage all parishioners to use their envelopes when contributing but especially those of you who worship elsewhere.

John Phair

150th Anniversary of St. Patricks Church Kilnavart. All are invited to the celebration of the 150th anniversary of St. Patricks Church Kilnavart with Mass on Sunday next, January 6th at 3pm. You are also invited to refreshments in Templeport Resource Centre after the Mass. If you would like to help with the catering please ring Ellen on 087 223 8965 as soon as possible.

Fr Johnny Doherty and Maureen Flanagan both sent Christmas greetings to all our Parishioners. We remember their tireless work during our mission last May and pray that memories of their message of hope and joy still live in our hearts.

Thank You. As we come to the end of 2018, I would like to express our thanks to all who help in the running of the parish. Whether it is in looking after the churches and graveyards, involvement in organising the liturgy or helping to lead liturgies, looking after the collections and finances, the newsletter, the pastoral council and finance committee it is all important work and the parish could not function without your assistance. On a personal note I must say how grateful I am to you for your continuing kindness to me in so many different ways. Finally thank you for your generosity in contributing to the offertory and dues collections and the other collections throughout the year.

John Phair.
