PAUSE FOR THOUGHT...

A priest parked his car on a rather steep slope close to his church. His little cairn terrier was lying on the rear seat and could not be seen by anyone outside the vehicle. The priest got out of the car and Stay!" he ordered loudly, to an apparently empty car. "Stay!". An elderly man was watching the performance with amused interest. Grinning, he suggested, "Why don't you just try putting on the emergency brakes!"

To the mind of the unbeliever, watching someone pray is the equal of watching someone say "Stay" to their car fully expecting it to obey. To the unbeliever prayer is an exercise in futility. But to the unbeliever, prayer is the most reliable force in the world today.

Making Sense of Transgenderism: An evening entitled "Making Sense of Transgenderism" will be held in Tomregan Church Hall, Ballyconnell on Thursday night 7th February at 8pm. Rev. Simon Donohoe, the Rector, has asked me to invite any interested parishioners. Transgender issues are very topical at present and it would be good to get a Christian perspective on the topic. Guest speaker is Rev. David Martin who has recently written a book entitled "Rewriting Gender? You, Your Family, Transgenderism and the Gospel". I hope a good number of our parishioners will be able to attend.

Saint Vincent de Paul Collection at Xmas: Many thanks to everyone for your generosity towards Saint Vincent de Paul. Amount collected – Corlough €114.90. Kilnavart €291.35. Bawnboy €274.65. Thank You.

Asthma Society of Ireland collection in Kilnavart recently amounted to €126.20. Thank You.
