PAUSE FOR THOUGHT...

A mother sent her fifth-class boy up to bed. In a few minutes she went to make sure he was getting in bed. When she stuck her head into his room, she saw that he was kneeling beside his bed in prayer. Pausing to listen to his prayer, she heard her son praying over and over again. "Let it be Tokyo! Please dear God, let it be Tokyo! When he finished his prayers, she asked him, "What did you mean, "Let it be Tokyo?" "Oh," the boy said with embarrassment, "we had a geography exam today and I was praying that God would make Tokyo the Capital of France."

Prayer is not a magical means by which we get God to do what we want. Prayer is an inner openness to God who allows his divine power to be released in us. Ultimately, the power of prayer is not that we succeed in changing God, but that God succeeds in changing us.

Offertory Collectors for February: Seanie O'Reilly, Margaret Brady, Edward McKiernan.
