Towards Peace is a service offering spiritual support to those who have experienced abuse perpetrated by Church personnel, individually or institutionally. The vision of Towards Peace is to provide a safe supportive space for people and their families, whose spiritual life has been damaged by abuse. It is also a response to the continually growing understanding of the spiritual impact of the trauma of abuse. Towards Peace provides spiritual support through one-to-one spiritual direction sessions, with a qualified spiritual companion. If you have been abused and would like a space to reflect on the impact of the trauma of abuse on your own relationship with God and spirituality, Towards Peace is here for you. www.towardspeace.ie Tel: 01 505 3028. Mobile: 086 7710533. Up to twelve sessions are available and there is no fee.

Do you want to re-train to re-enter the workforce? Are you out of work due to illness, disability or a personal setback? ICT Skills is a level 4 programme designed to support people who have faced a long-term barrier to re-train and re-enter the workforce. Participants on this programme may qualify for a training allowance (depending on eligibility criteria). Benefits to this programme include a work placement, training plan, personalised support and QQI certification. Please telephone Mary on 049 4377038 for more information.

We are hosting our Open Day at Cavan Institute on Thursday 28 February 2019 from 9.30am to 3pm on Cathedral Road. This is an ideal opportunity for prospective applicants to sample the wide range of courses and facilities on offer. There will be an extensive range of activities on the day, which will be beneficial to students in selecting third level options and planning for future careers. The main features of the Open Day include a career’s exhibition, information sessions, demonstrations, workshops and laboratory visits. Students will have the opportunity to meet with tutors and current students who will be available to answer any queries. Organised tours will be available throughout the day. These are great opportunities to chat to our staff, find out about the Further Education sector and discuss the many options available to school leavers and adult learners, so don’t miss out.
