Farewell. As I come to the end of my time as parish priest in Corlough Templeport I want to say a heartfelt thank you to you, my parishioners for the part you played in making my time here a very happy period of my life. The cooperation I received in my ministry made life much easier for me and I hope for you also. For example the willingness with which people agreed to be part of the Parish Council and Finance Committee was very encouraging and this was a feature of how willing you are to play your part in the life of the parish. I hope you will always take pride in your parish because it is a great parish. I wish Fr Sean Maguire every success and I know you will give him the same support as you gave me. May you always know God's comforting and strengthening presence in your lives. May the Lord bless you. May He keep you from all evil and lead you to everlasting life.

John Phair
