Christmas Lights: Thank you to all the men who turned out yesterday to put up the lights in the village, hopefully they will bring some light and hope to all in this most difficult time. More lights are required and as fundraising cannot be done this year, we would appreciate any donations to enable us to buy more lights and bring some cheer to the community. Donations can be left into Maguire's shop in an envelope marked TDA Light Fund or to Sheila, Keepers Arms. Your support would be greatly appreciated. Lights will be lit in early December. More details later.
